

605—5.8(22) Notice to suppliers of information. Insert at the end of the model rule the following new sentence. “For federal records and forms the United States Government’s determination of routine use and the consequences of failure to provide required or optional information as requested shall be provided to the supplier of information.”